Congregation: (Yesha'Yah.40:8)"Grass shall wither, the flower shall fade, but the Word of Yahweh stands forever.

Leader: (Mishle. 24:17) Do not exult when your enemy falls, and let not your heart rejoice when he stumbles; Do not say, "Let me do to him as he did to me;

These are some wise sayings:

Leader: Truth is the Seal of Yahweh
Before prayers examine your heart, whether it is in a prayerful mood;
if thou art distracted pray not at all. Prayer without devotion is as a body without a soul.

He who practices justice and kindness, establishes the kingdom of Yahweh in the world.

He, who makest another perform a deed, is greater than the doer
When children honor their parents, there Yahweh dwells, there he is honored.
As the ocean never freezes, so the gate of repentance is never closed.
Great is dignity of labor; it honors a man.

Improve yourself and then improve others.
When a man has turned from sin, reproach him no more.
Position cannot honor the man the man must honor the position.

Leader: Debarim {Deut 6:4-9}
"Hear, O Yisra'Yah: יהוה All-Mighty, יהוה is one! "And you shall love יהוה your All-Mighty with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your might. "And these Words which I am commanding you hayom {today} shall be in your heart, And you shall impress them upon your children, and shall speak of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up, and shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. "And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.
Debarim {Deut 11:13-21}
'And it shall be that if you diligently obey My commands which I command you hayom {today}, to love יהוה your Ab-ba and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your being,
Then I shall give you the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain, and you shall gather in your grain, and your new wine, and your oil. 'And I shall give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you shall eat and be satisfied.
'Guard yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other mighty ones and bow down to them. 'Then the displeasure of יהוה shall burn against you, and He shall shut up the shamayim {heaven}, and there be no rain, and the lands not give its increase. And you shall perish quickly from the tov {good} land which יהוה is giving you. 'And you shall lay up these words of Mine in your heart and in your being, and shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. 'And you shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. And shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, So that your Chai {life} and the Chai {life} of your children are increased on the soil of which יהוה swore to your fathers to give them, as the yomim {days} of the Shamayim {heavens} on the erets {earth}.
Bemidbar {Num 15:37-41}
And יהוה spoke to Mosheh, {Moses} saying, "Speak to the children of Yisra'Yah, and you shall say to them to make tzitzit (fringes) on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a blue cord in the tzitzit of the corners. "And it shall be to you for a tzitzit, and you shall see it, and shall remember all the commands of יהוה and shall do them, and not search after your own heart and your own eyes after which you went whoring, So that you remember, and shall do all My commands, and be set-apart unto your Ab-ba. "I am יהוה Your Ab-ba, who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim {Egypt}, to be your Ab-ba. I am יהוה Your Ab-ba."

PESACH PRAYERS

1.Leader: Abba (Father) of all generations, the past is Your handiwork and the splendours of the future Your promise. On this festival of Pesach, we are gathered in Your house to recall Your wonders of old. When we were slaves in Mistrayim and suffered under the lash of taskmasters, Thou did send Your servants, Mosheh and Aaron, to stand in the presence of Pharaoh and proclaim in Your name: Let My people go that they may serve Me. The cruel heart of the tyrant and the might of his armies did not avail against Your liberating word, and Yisra'Yah marched forth from Mistrayim with songs and rejoicing to find freedom in Your service. This was Your will in ancient yomim (days), and it is Your law forever. Wherever the yoke of serfdom is broken, wherever tyrants are overthrown, wherever Your children live as free men, there is Your word fulfilled and Your will triumphant. To every soul comes Your command: Be servants unto Me alone, and not slaves to man.
Teach us, O Yahweh, to accept and cherish Your Torah (law) of liberty. Guide us with Your wisdom that we may grow in knowledge and in sympathy, and keep our judgment free from passion or prejudice. May we strive for the redemption of our souls and thus become messengers of freedom to all Your children. In Your power, O Abba, is the fate of nations. Yahweh who did break Pharaoh's yoke and bid the slaves go free, be Thou our help in every time of peril. Let all men see that the might of armies and the power of tyrants must vanish like smoke before the force of Your spirit. May the coming year bring a new Pesach of freedom to all Your children in every land. Hallelu'Yah.

2.Congregation: O Yahweh of the universe, Thou dost manifest Your creative power in the world about us. We are bidden to observe this season when Thou didst redeem our fathers from the slavery of Mistrayim, that they might go forth to serve Thee in freedom. Help us to cast off the chains that bind our spirits, and to free ourselves from the selfishness and indifference that keep us from Thee. May there be release within our souls, are awakening of love for Thee. Grant, O Yahweh, that Your people Yisra'Yah may be freed from the tyranny that sorely besets them, and from the sorrow and despair that burden their hearts. Redeem us, O Yahweh, from the serfdom of ignorance and irreverence that we may continue to fulfil our historic task as Your servants and witnesses. Strengthen our hearts with unswerving faith and serene trust in Your providence. Thus, shall we become champions of justice upon earth. Fervently we pray for the universal springtide in the life of mankind when the long winter of intolerance and hatred shall have passed, the vision of the prophets fulfilled and the splendour of Your king acknowledged of all men.

Praise Songs

Cup of deliverance- I will deliver you from slavery
Cup of redemption- I will redeem you with my power
Cup of restoration- I will take you as my people

For in us has Thou chosen and Thou has set-apart us above all peoples: and Thou has given us as heritage Your Set-apart (Sabbath and) seasons in love and in favour, in simcah (joy) and in gladness. Praise art Thou, O Yahweh, who set-apart (the Sabbath and) Yisra'Yah and the festive seasons. takes Parsley, or Chervil, and dips it into Vinegar, or Salt Water, and having distributed it give some to everyone at the Table, they all say the following Grace before they eat it.

At this season, next year, may the whole house of Yisra'Yah be free!

The youngest present asks "The Four Question: .
Why is this night different from all other nights? For on all other night we eat both leavened and unleavened bread, but on this night only leavened bread? On all other night we eat any kind of herbs, but on this night bitter herbs? On all other nights we do not dip our herbs even once, but on this night we dip twice? On all other nights we eat either sitting or leaning, but on this night we all lean?

The following answeris given:

Slaves were we uato Pharaoh in the land of Mitsrayim, and the Eternal Yahweh all- Mighty! Brought us forth from thence, with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; and if the Set-apart One, praise be He had not brought forth our ancestors from Mitsrayim, we, and our children, and our childrens children, had still continued in bandage to the Pharaohs in Mitsrayim; therefore, even if we were all learned, all men of understanding, all of us having knowledge in the Torah (law), it nevertheless would be incumbent upon us to recount the departure from Mitsrayim; and it is accounted praiseworthy to discourse at length thereon.
