Leader: Debarim {Deut 6:4-9}

"Hear, O Yisra'Yah: יהוה All-Mighty, יהוה is one!

"And you shall love יהוה your All-Mighty with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your might.

"And these Words which I am commanding you hayom {today} shall be in your heart,
And you shall impress them upon your children, and shall speak of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up, and shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

"And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Debarim {Deut 11:13-21}

'And it shall be that if you diligently obey My commands which I command you hayom {today}, to love יהוה your Ab-ba and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your being,
Then I shall give you the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain, and you shall gather in your grain, and your new wine, and your oil.

'And I shall give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you shall eat and be satisfied.

‘Guard yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other mighty ones and bow down to them.

‘Then the displeasure of יהוה shall burn against you, and He shall shut up the shamayim {heaven}, and there be no rain, and the lands not give its increase. And you shall perish quickly from the tov {good} land which יהוה is giving you.

‘And you shall lay up these words of Mine in your heart and in your being, and shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

‘And you shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up.
And shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates,
So that your Chai {life} and the Chai {life} of your children are increased on the soil of which יהוה swore to your fathers to give them, as the yomim {days} of the shamayim {heavens} on the erets {earth}.

Bemidbar {Num 15:37-41}

And יהוה spoke to Mosheh, {Moses} saying,

“Speak to the children of Yisra’Yah, and you shall say to them to make tzitzit (fringes) on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a blue cord in the tzitzit of the corners.

“And it shall be to you for a tzitzit, and you shall see it, and shall remember all the commands of יהוה shall do them, and not search after your own heart and your own eyes after which you went whoring,

So that you remember, and shall do all My commands, and be set-apart unto your Ab-ba. “I am יהוה Your Ab-ba, who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim {Egypt}, to be your Ab-ba.

I am יהוה Your Ab-ba.”

Opening berakah (blessings)

Opening Prayer

Leader: With grateful hearts and joyous songs, we stand before You, O Yahweh, stirred anew by the revived memories of Your wondrous redemption in the yomim (days) of yore. Marvelous have been Your works are at all times to the children of men. You satisfy the longing soul and the hungry, you fill with tov (good). They that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death cry unto You and are delivered from their affliction.

Abba of freedom, Your children still groan under the burden of cruel taskmasters. Slavery debases their bodies and minds and robs them of the enjoyment of Your bounties. The fear of cruelty and the peril of death blight the souls of men. O break the irons that bind them.

Teach men to understand that by forging chains for others, they forge chains for themselves, that as long as some are in fetters, no one is truly free. Help them to see that liberty is the very breath of life and that only in the atmosphere of freedom can truth, prosperity and peace flourish. Imbue us with courage to guard our heritage of freedom above all material goods and to preserve it for others so that all men shall dwell together in safety and none shall make them afraid. HalleluYah.

Congregation: Our Abba and Master! As the week of Pesach draws to its close, we come into Your house in the knowledge that where You are, there is unending life and hope, liberty and peace. You revive the spirit of the downcast and lift up from the very gates of death. Bestow Your blessing upon us and grant renewal of courage to hearts that have grown weary in the battle for justice. Strengthen their faith in the ultimate triumph of the right. Let Your light shine into our spirits and liberate us and all the children of men from fear and anguish. May the hope of springtime and the promise of freedom find speedy fulfilment in a splendorous harvest of life enriched and redeemed. HalleluYah.

Closing Prayer:

O Yahweh our Abba, on this closing eve of the feast of our freedom, we gather to thank You for the blessings which it has bestowed and for the message it has brought. Delivered by Your hand from the tyrant's might, YisraYah sang a song of praise unto You by the shore of the Red Sea. Many times since hast You saved us from the fury of men and from the floods of destruction. In peril and in need hast You been our tower of strength. O continue to redeem us and all Your children from danger and oppression. Wherever men groan under the yoke of servitude, hasten to deliver them. Cleanse the hearts of men and their rulers of the passions of hate and strife, of greed and lust for power, and fill them with tov (good) will and the love of justice. Speed the Pesach of the future, when tyranny and slavery shall cease, when sword and spear shall be broken, and freedom and peace shall reign forever. On that yom (day), all men shall come to know that they are brothers, and with gladness and song proclaim Thee their Abba and Redeemer. HalleluYah
